The first-ever live show based on the PBS Kids literacy-based series Super Why! called Super WHY Live: You've Got the Power! is set to launch in the US this summer, debuting in Monroe, Louisiana and travelling to nine cities in July with additional stops planned for the fall.

The live show, produced by S2BN Entertainment (Spider-Man: Turn Off The Dark, Yo Gabba Gabba Live!, Rock of Ages: The Musical), features music from Jack Antonoff of the hit band "fun", cutting-edge technology, visual effects, aerial stunts and follows the live adventures of popular characters Super Why, Alpha Pig, Wonder Red, Princess Presto and their puppy pal Woofster.

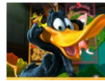

Super Why! the series is produced by Out of the Blue Enterprises in conjunction with Toronto's DHX Media, and is co-created and executive produced by Samantha Freeman Alpert.
